HORSE PRODUCERS GRANTED FEDERAL AID UNDER EMERGENCY LIVESTOCK FEED ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

S. Mason Carbaugh, Commissioner of Agriculture and Commerce, announced today that effective March 6, 1977, those counties in Virginia now receiving Emergency Livestock Feed Assistance for their cattle herds may also consider horses as eligible livestock.

The amended emergency order from the federal Disaster Assistance Administration, which was requested by Governor Godwin, also makes this assistance available to those six counties receiving Hay Transportation Assistance.

Appomattox County is one of 32 counties eligible for the emergency Livestock Feed Program.

The amendment to the emergency order adding horses states, "Foundation herds of horses in Virginia, in support of the horse industry, are considered as eligible livestock. emergency assistance for such horses is limited to those cases where the raising of horses is the primary source of income for the farm and shall not be extended to horses maintained for other purposes. Emergency Livestock Feed Assistance shall be provided where available..." The order will be in effect until April 30, 1977.

Producers in the designated counties who are forced to buy feed for their horses or cattle herds because of drought conditions should contact their local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office (ASCS), which administers the program.

Commissioner Carbaugh said "This additional assistance should be of significant help to Virginia's horse industry, which has also suffered through the loss of hay and grain crops due to drought conditions this past spring and summer."

We are also looking for organizations or individuals who are interested in sponsoring children for camp. There is no better way to give of yourself than to enrich a handicapped child's life with an experience such as this.

Camp Easter Seal

At Camp Easter Seal, located in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains, handicapped boys and girls may experience new thrills and accomplish new feats among the serenity and beauty of what is referred to by campers as the "Valley of Miracles."

The opportunity to horseback ride through the pine-scented valleys of age-old mountains is a rare experience for a handicapped child. The challenge of learning to swim in a temperature controlled pool stimulates many campers into pursuing this sport long after the camping season is over. The feeling of accomplishment in paddling a canoe silently along beautiful Craigs Creek can be measured only in the expressions of a child's face.

To these accomplishments, add the joy of living in the out-of-doors with your new friends, fellow campers, and counselors. The realization that you are not alone in a world of crutches, braces, and wheel chairs lends a type security that is unknown in a less unique setting.

Children tend to assume that once school adjourns for the summer vacation, the learning experience is set aside for a few months. However, as a camper at Camp Easter Seal, you will gradually begin to realize that this is a false assumption. The fun of learning about the exciting world of nature through nature recreation sessions, or the excitement of learning new skills in campcraft and then using them during an overnight campout, soon defeats any ideas about fun and learning not being compatible.

To an inspirational setting of peace and solitude of a secluded mountain valley, add the security of sincere friendship, an atmosphere of worth and belonging, and the thrill of true accomplishment. Surely there is reason to believe that this is the "Valley of Miracles."

ELGIBILITY

REGULAR CAMP: Any child or youth between the ages of 8 and 17 years who is resident of Virginia and handicapped.

SPEECH CAMP: Boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 14 years in need of speech therapy.

ADULT CAMP: A specialized program developed especially for more mature campers 17 years of age and older who enjoy the fun and fellowship of camp life.

For applications and more information write to The

Easter Seal Society Serves People

Last year, The Easter Seal Society reported a record year in terms of the number of handicapped people served. Some 353,000 persons of all ages received rehabilitation services natinwide...a whopping 34 percent increase over the previous year.

The Easter Seal folks would like to improve on that achievement this year. They'll need your help to do it.

Obviously, any organization that can boast a record like this must be doing something right. At the regional Easter Seal center in South Hill alone, 300 men, women and children were helped toward restoration as productive human beings last year - and Easter Seal wants to increase that figure even more in 1977. We believe helping accomplish this task is a very worthwhile investment - one that pays back rich dividends in human happiness, a rare enough commodity these days. Easter Seal is concerned with only one goal – helping thousands of handicapped make the fullest use of their capacities -- and it takes money to do it.

Easter Seal is also justifiably proud that nationwide, 76 percent of every dollar it spends goes for direct services to help the handicapped - perhaps in physical or occupational therapy, treatment of speech and hearing disorders, vocational counseling, preschool training, or one of the dozens of other rehabilitation services the society provides.

The local Easter Seal campaign, running from March 1 through Easter Sunday, April 10, is one in which you can indeed invest with confidence. Your continued support and encouragement of this most needed cause can help achieve another significant jump in the number of disabled persons helped. And that's one increase we're sure no one will object to.

Local Man Completes Course

David B. Austin of Appomattox, an installer - repairman at the Amherst office of Continental Telephone of Virginia, has completed a course in station repair at the Continental Telephone System Training Center near Amherst, Virginia.

Each student who completes the 10-day course is able to effectively analyze, trouble-shoot, and repair customer telephone equipment, including station carrier systems.

The first part of the course concentrates on the basic principales of electricity as applied to modern telephony. Before graduation, the student is able to read a circuit diagram of the customer's telephone line and equipment; locate and repair troubles using special testing equipment; and locate faults in and replace AML, CM4 and CM8 carrier systems.

Austin has been with the Continental System since June, 1965.

EASTER SEAL CAMPAIGN UNDERWAY

The 1977 Easter Seal campaign got unerway March 1 and continues through Easter, Sunday, April 10. We urge your enthusiastic support of this appeal for funds to help handicapped children and adults in this county.

Giving is a personal thing. To give - to help - to lend a helping hand to someone in need is an act of purest brotherhood. Yet all too often in this busy world we miss the point. We give to this or that automatically, out of a vague sense of responsibility. Or often we refuse to give because we don't really understand.

The Easter Seal Society of Virginia returns charity to the personal, human level. To you. Their work with the handicapped permits you to understand why you give. More important, you can see the results of your gift in the restored lives, the new hope that rehabilitation brings. Along with this comes a warm feeling or satisfaction from knowing you helped. That warm feeling is worth a lot, knowing that you have brought hope for a better tomorrow to the handicapped.

Your gift also becames a helping hand to the skilled rehabilitation specialists on duty every day at the Regional Easter Seal Center in South Hill. It instills a sense of worth in the minds and hearts of those who are handicapped due to a birth defect, accident or illness.

It is our earnest hope that all of you recognizing the importance of this Easter Seal drive, will respond with a generous demonstration of support.

Brownie Troop 308 Has World Friendship Day

On March 17 all the Brownies and leaders of Troop 308 received their World Association pin and Girl Scout Membership card. The pin shows that our troop is part of the Girl Scout family round the world. To learn something about the countries in the World Association, Sherry Vassar displayed wooden shoes from Holland, Steffanie Martin displayed pictures of costumes from around the world, Amy Kerr wore a tartan skirt, most of the Brownies wore something green in honor of St. Patrick's Day, the Brownies learned to say "Thank you" in four languages, played an Australian game, heard a Mexican story, and were shown an exotic dance costume which Mrs. Laura Martin allowed us to display. The troop thanks Mrs. Martin, and Carole's Fashion Shop for the use of her dress form which was used to display the colorful costume. The leaders of Troop 308 are Nancy Mayberry, Barbara Mayberry, Thelma Knight, and Mildred Thompson.
